Dear Friends, Spring 2020

What a month! We had a newsletter printed and ready to put in the mail when Covid-19 hit. Needless to say, it was instantly outdated. So, here is a redo. We trust you and yours are well and we pray that continues.

Winter still lives with us (a little less now than at the first writing), but the promise of spring is around the corner. With Equinox in March, our days get longer by a few minutes each day. This adds up quickly and soon we will be back to continual daylight for several months. Solomon well stated “there is a season for everything” and we certainly see the different seasons and the marvel of each. The greatest season we enjoy is the season of spiritual harvest. We continue to see that regardless of the natural seasons around us.

Camp AN 2020 cancelled: We had anticipated a different season than the one we are all going through with this Corona virus. Like everyone else, we have had to change a lot of plans. Because many plans would have already been enacted and many teams would be purchasing tickets and not knowing how long this would last, it became necessary to cancel Camp Agaiutim Nune 2020. This was done in conference with our Alaska leadership, Alaska Native leadership along with our Camp leadership. As soon as we got the word out, many camp workers/staff express great disappointment and great concern for the youth we would have ministered to.

All of our projects for the 2020 season have been put on hold until the summer of 2021. Already we are making plans for an outstanding season in 2021. Please begin praying with us! We will be sending Alaska Evangelism Bible study lessons to the campers just to stay in contact with them. We have addresses on all previous campers.

Anchorage Ministry at Crossroads Assembly: As to how we carry out ministry even here in Anchorage—that has changed, as well. As many others, we have ways to minister to the people through internet, social media and through phone contacts. We, as you, are adapting and asking God for creative and anointed ways to continue reaching people.

Crossroads Building Repair: This summer will also be a busy summer for the church in Anchorage as we are finally going to get the repair work needed from the November 2018 earthquake. With so many buildings and roads damaged there has been a waiting list to get the difficult work of foundation damage repaired. Please be in prayer with us as God continues to lead. The foundation damage has not hindered us from continuing our services and God continues touching lives, but does need to be repaired before another big one. Pray with us that this can happen in spite of the current turmoil.

The Alaska Evangelism Bible study/evangelism literature ministry continues seeing lives changed as God’s Word touches lives in remote areas and prisons of Alaska.

Thank you for partnering with us for Alaska. Your faithful support and prayers are seeing lives reached and changed by the power of God. As with all ministries, we are struggling financially even more because of the virus impact on everyone’s lives. We understand and doubly appreciate those who can keep up with our support.

Yours for Souls in Alaska,

Jim & Linda Schulz
