November 2022

Dear Friends,

Winter has once again entered our lives and world here in Alaska. As I write, snow and temperatures are falling. But there is a greater excitement in the air—God's Holy Spirit is falling. We had a powerful summer of ministry.

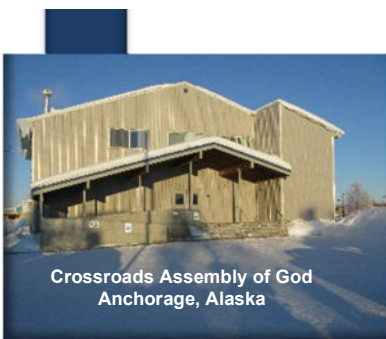

Our summer ministry of Camp Agaitim Nune (Camp AN) in remote Western Alaska was powerful from day one. Everyone on the Yukon Delta was excited to once again rejoice together and worship God at Camp AN. Kids and teens began to respond to the message and the Holy Spirit. Many lives were changed. There was such great excitement among both campers and workers to be at camp again after the two-year shut-down.

Join with us in prayer for the summer of 2023. We will be building our first of five dorm cabins. Since the beginning of Camp AN twenty-seven years ago, the campers have slept in tents on hard floors. We are excited to begin a five-year project of building one dorm cabin per year until all are built. Join with us in prayer for the $40,000 that each dorm cabin will cost to build. God has been so faithful for every need. He has laid this on our hearts and we know He does not change, so He will provide. If you would like to give to that project above your support for us, you may designate that portion to Account 2031532, Class 60 projects. We appreciate your faithful support and your desire to go beyond your regular support in helping with this need.

Presently, campers sleep on the floor in tents

Crossroads Assembly of God
Anchorage, Alaska

Here in Anchorage, at Crossroads we have seen God move in such special ways. Today I put a young family on the airplane headed to western Alaska to be resident missionary pastors in the remote village of Emmonak, Alaska. They are special to us and to the church here. They met several years ago at Camp AN while attending Bible College, married and now have two children. They have been working with us at Crossroads for the past four years. It has been our joy to see God's hand on them, their response to the call of God and now to see them on the field in their own ministry.

Pray with us for more workers to come join us as the field is white and ready for harvest. The harvest of souls comes from every corner of the harvest field. We continue with the correspondence Bible Study ministry that is reaching places we have not even be able to physically get to yet. The Word and the Holy Spirit are there and reaping a harvest.

Thank you for faithfully joining with us. Your love for souls and your prayers and support help see many into the kingdom of God. We could not do what we do without your help.

Blessings always and
